

EGD MISS STONE'S RANSOM

Appeals for Funds Made in Many

Generous Answers Received to the Request for Money to Secure the Missionary's Release—Relief That BOSTON, Oct. 6.—In many of the Protestant churches today an appeal was made to the people to contribute toward the ransom fund demanded for the release of Miss Stone by the Bulgarian brigands. In a few churches collections were taken up, but in most cases the clergy asked their congregation to make their

The amount realized by the appeals in the churches is expected to be very large. A member of the firm of Kidder, Peabody & Co. said tonight that each mail brought in large sums. It is thought that a large other tomorrow. Late last night a telegram was received from a gentleman in Philadelphia saying he had sent $1,000. Similar messages were arriving all day.

An unnecessary cruelty was inflicted upon the aged mother: of the captive missionary yesterday. Some one thoughtlessly sent her a newspaper account of the death sentence passed upon her daughter. Ever since the first news came the other members of the family have vigilantly kept all the painful details as much as possible from her. The aged

As soon as the $119,500 has been raised the agent appointed by the American Board will be made acquainted with the fact by cable. Constantinople will probably be the place where the agent will be appointed. The money will at once be forwarded to him by cable order, and

The American Board held a meeting today which lasted for two hours. Later the committee issued a statement, based on the views of President Samuel B. C.

Washington yesterday. Both gentlemen have had interviews with President Roosevelt and the officials of the State

The committee was informed that the Government, by reason of constitutional restrictions, is unable to pay the ransom. The committee was also made aware of

The only practical way, therefore, was shown to be a popular subscription, which has already been started. The committee heartily approved this and immediately sent telegrams to every corporate member in the United States urging subscriptions and telling them to telegraph the same to Kiddie, Peabody & Co.

spirit with which the appeal is being received, that there is strong ground for the hope that the amount will be obtained speedily. In every possible way the American Board will co-operate, both by gift and solicitation.

President Capen says that the Government at Washington has done, is doing, and will continue to do, all that is

MARRIED IN THIS CITY.
A New York Man Weds While Here.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Walter Shepherd, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Shepherd, who live in an old-fashioned mansion on Knickerbocker Avenue, near Sherwood street,

His bride was Miss Elizabeth Pratt, of Washington, he said. She is twenty years old and pretty. He is twenty-six. He is employed by the North River Savings

A QUEER LITTLE RAILROAD.
Complete System in a New York Manufactory.

The track, which is of eighteen-inch gauge, is laid with regular T rails. As heads rolled over it the bar iron used to curl up at the ends, just as, in old times, the strap rails used on steam railroads used to curl up into snakeheads. Then, some thirty-odd years ago, the real concern had the T rail that is now und necessary to renew these rails, though they are in constant daily and heavy use, for the cars running on them move at a slow speed. The ties, however, have to be renewed from time to time and the rails respiked.

lines* With the President at the White House.

White House in the evening, he being the only guest. After dinner the President and the Senator had a conference in the Green Room lasting until 10:30. The chief topics discussed were the appointment of Federal officials in New York State, the date of announcing Collector Rhineland's appointment, and the question of the removal of Appraiser Wakeman.

been talked about, but absolutely refused to make any statement for publication, or even chat with the numerous newspaper reporters who called. The Senator said he might have something to say to-day, and at once went to bed.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—The race for the Prix Conseil Municipal today was won by Amarnock, ridden by Johnnie Reiff, the American jockey. The race was run in a fast and a drenching rain.

2-10 To Europe and Russia Via Pennsylvania Railroad.
Pan-American Expedition Excursion, Special train will leave Washington at 8:00 a. m., Tuesday, October 8, tickets limited to seven days, closing date of sale. Similar excursions October 15, 22, 29.

Suburban Cottages Constructed without delay when supplied by Frank Libbey Co.